Col. James, military attache of the British embassy, was best man yesterday at the marriage in Philadelphia of Miss Caroline Sinnickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sinnickson, and Lieut. Col. Offley Bohun Stovin Fairless Shore at St. James' Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Dr. Richardson, the rector, performed the ceremony. Miss Elizabeth Sinnickson and Miss Fanny Sinnickson, the sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. A reception was given for the family and a few intimate friends at the residence of the bride's parents, 230 West Rittenhouse square. Lilies, white heather and feathery ferns were fastened with airy hoops of green and white tulle, and bride roses trimmed the luncheon table, the mainfeature of which was the big wedding cake, made for the bride in England, which arrived on the Merion just in time for the wedding.

Revival at Fifth Baptist Church.

The revival at Fifth Baptist Church in which Dr. Roper of Spartanburg, S. C., in aiding Dr. Bruner is declared to be awakening wonderful interest. Great congregations are in attendance. Dr. Roper announced as his text last night "Not by might nor by power, by by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts," Zacha-

The speaker laid bare the hypocrisy and folly of the churches and men who hope to accomplish lasting results by the wisdom of the world's way, and then pointed out how by the power of God s Spirit we may accomplish even the most gigantic tasks.

"The world has yet to see what wonders God can do by prayer," exclatmed the preacher; "but no man can pray except the Spirit teach him. "The Spirit teaches the church to pray, gives the awful burden for the lost, con vinces the per shing of sin and then leads the penitent to Jesus, the only Savior." The singing by the chorus and congre gation, led by Mr. Palmer, and the cornet playing by Miss Grace Burlman continues to be a feature of the exercises, apartments, 14th street and Park road Services are held every afternoon at 2 and night at 7:30 o'clock, except Saturday.

her, That tells how beloved is the one that is dead Or how deep in our hearts we deplore her. Tis the tear through many a long day wept, 'Tis life's whole pathway shaded;
'Tis life's whole pathway shaded;
'Tis the one remembrance foundly kept,
When all lighter griefs have faded.

BY HER LOVING PARENTS.

Until in heaven we meet again.
